

Why can't they leave well enough alone. The other radio stations have their own audiences. Let free markets compete, stop the victim mentality of those who will not compete.